Many thanks to everyone who joined the litter picking session on the morning of Saturday 8 April.

Around 30 villagers, adults and children, enjoyed the fine weather clearing paths and roadsides in and around Exton. In only a few hours, around 40 bags of rubbish were collected.

The action day was organised by Edward Heckels on behalf of Exton and Horn Parish Council and supported by Rutland County Council, which arranged contractors to take the rubbish away and provided litter picking grab sticks, gloves, high visibility tabards and bin liners.

Annette Oliver, Clerk to the Parish Council, commented: “We are lucky to live in one of the most beautiful parts of Britain. Sadly, however, our countryside is spoilt by the growing spread of fast food wrappers, bottles, cans and other rubbish along the road side. The Parish Council were very happy to support the initiative of one of our residents who decided that something needed to be done and delighted by the support from villagers for the action day.”

June Fox, Rutland County Councillor for Exton, said: “The County Council was very pleased to be able to support this local initiative. I hope that the success of the action day in Exton encourages other communities in Rutland to organise litter picking events and to clean up their neighbourhood.”

Thinking like a Mathematician

We are working hard to develop the children into mathematicians. Being ‘good at maths’ is not about being able to recall facts, but being good at seeking solutions, exploring patterns, thinking mathematically, formulating opinions, solving problems, reasoning and explaining. Our maths lessons all aim to develop these skills alongside teaching children methods and facts.

Launch of a new mental health crisis resolution and home treatment service for young people

Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust (LPT), the three Clinical Commissioning Groups and the local authorities in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland are delighted to announce the launch of a new service to support young people in mental health crisis and their families.

As part of the Future in Mind transformation programme which focuses on improving the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people, extensive consultation was carried out with children, young people and families who have had experience of LPT’s child and adolescent mental health service (CAMHS). This consultation identified a clear need for a targeted crisis and home treatment service across Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland. LPT has worked closely with young people, with commissioners and with the local authorities to develop this new service.

The new crisis resolution and home treatment service will provide treatment and support at home for children and young people in mental health crisis and for their families in situations where no physical medical intervention is required. The service will launch on 1 April 2017, building on the existing on-call team which has been in place for a year. It forms part of LPT’s five year improvement programme for CAMHS which began in 2016.

Currently, many children and young people experiencing severe mental and emotional distress end up at Accident and Emergency, where access to appropriate and timely psychiatric liaison from specialist child and adolescent mental health professionals is not always immediately available. LPT’s new crisis resolution and home treatment service will ensure these children and young people receive timely and appropriate care without having to be admitted to hospital. Where admission has been necessary, the team will deliver a supportive relapse prevention and recovery care plan to enable early discharge.

The crisis resolution and home treatment service, which will be based at the Agnes Unit on Anstey Lane in Leicester, is aligned with the adult service, and will run 365 days a year from 8am until 10 pm daily. Outside of these hours, referrals will be handled by LPT’s adult crisis team.

Care will be tailored to meet the needs of the child or young person and their family, whether this takes the form of a one-off assessment at home, at school or at the GP surgery, or a period of intensive home treatment. The service is aimed at those who are:

- at immediate and significant risk of self-harm or suicide
- experiencing acute psychological or emotional distress which is having such a significant impact on their wellbeing that their schooling is being affected
- being considered for an admission to a mental health inpatient unit
- posing an immediate or significant risk to others due to their mental health.

The service will provide a single point of access for referrers, including GPs, health professionals, local authority professionals, schools, the police and the voluntary sector. Once a referral is received and accepted, the team will seek to make telephone contact with the family within two hours, aiming to assess the child or young person within four to 24 hours depending on the urgency.

Adam Mckeown, head of service for specialist children’s services and learning disability services at LPT said: “I am delighted that, after many months of engaging with young people, planning and recruitment, we will be launching our new children’s crisis resolution and home treatment service on 1 April. The new team will give children and young people the flexibility they told us they wanted to be supported at home and in the community when experiencing a mental health crisis. The team will work closely with our current CAMHS community services to ensure emergency and urgent support is available outside of a hospital setting.”

Elaine Egan-Morris, CAMHS commissioner, said: “It is great news that we are now able to offer this new service that has been developed in partnership with children, young people and their families as part of the programme to transform children and young people’s services across Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland. The service is aimed at improving the experience of children and young people suffering a mental health crisis, by delivering care closer to home, thereby promoting their recovery.”

A formal launch event is planned for Wednesday 3 May.

NOTES TO EDITORS
- Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust (LPT) provides community health, mental health and learning disabilities services for the one million people living in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland. We have a budget in excess of £275 million and employ approximately 5,500 staff.

Exton’s Produce and Craft Show

2017 Update

It is now thirty two years since the first annual Produce and Craft Show was held in Exton Village Hall. During this time there have been only two years when the Show did not take place. With the demise of the long established Street Market in 2008 and more recently the Exton Day, the annual Show is now the only long-standing event involving a cross-section of Exton Villagers, their families and pupils attending the Exton and Greetham Primary School.

The envy of many local villages, the Show continues to go from strength to strength and 2016 was no exception. There were thirty-four trophies and cash prizes awarded at the Show. The Children’s Section now hastily classes including a hotly contested trophy for the ‘Best Young Baker’ and a special prize of a superior model kit for ‘The Best Junior Model’ donated by The Rutland Scale Model Club, who meet regularly in the Village Hall throughout the year and for the first time this year mounted a fascinating exhibition of their handiwork as part of the Show.

In addition to the Show itself in August, the customary Presentation Buffet was held at Barnsdale Lodge Hotel for trophy winners, their friends and family. Trophies engraved with their winners’ names were presented for winners to keep until it is time for the next Show to be held on Sunday 20 August 2017.
At the end of the year, £1,411.72 was carried forward so as to ensure there will be sufficient funds to mount the Show in 2017, even without income from the customary fund raising activities. In 2016 these included providing teas for those taking part in The Exton Day, a Summer Barbeque for Committee and friends, a small surplus from the Show itself and an auction following the Presentation Buffet.

Two long-standing stalwarts of the Organising Committee: Chris Wallace and Meryl Hart, announced their retirement following many years of involvement with the organisation of the Show and their long experience and wise counsel will be sorely missed. Newcomers welcomed to the Committee in 2017 include villagers David Collins, who has taken on the role of Treasurer and Annie Allison a Member of Friends of Exton and Greetham School.

Cottage Garden Society visit:

On Wednesday, 14th June members of the Rutland branch of the Cottage Garden Society will be visiting gardens in Exton followed by lunch in the village hall.
We are hoping to have a plant stall to boost the funds raised, which will be donated to village groups. If you have any unwanted plants, seedlings or other garden related items for our stall, please could you bring them to either Chris Wallace at 1, The Green, or Meryl Hart at 12, Pudding Bag Lane, by Tuesday, June 13th.
Ladies Circle - Members and visitors enjoyed a most interesting demonstration of how to plant different hanging baskets, picking up several useful tips while watching. Kevin Barker planted four varying baskets, which were then available to buy at very reasonable prices.

The competition for a photo or picture of your garden was won by Meryl Hart, 2nd. Terry Connolly and 3rd. Margaret Oliver. The raffle prizes were won by Ann, Sandra and Serena. What will be happening at the May meeting has not yet been decided upon, but will be either a picnic or possibly a meal out. Once a decision has been made members will be notified. This will take place on Thursday, 4th. May and will be the last meeting until Thursday, 7th. September when Annette Oliver will be giving a most interesting talk on her experiences of being a Judge at Crufts. The competition will be a photo of your pet cat or dog.

HAS ANYONE LOST A YOUNG, GREY/WHITE / TABBY CAT ?

For the last three or four weeks he seems to have adopted Pudding Bag for his home. It seems several residents are offering him a bed and food and he is so very friendly. Somebody must be missing him/her surely? If anyone is looking for him, please call 01572812671 for information.

Services in May

14th  11.15 am Matins

28th  11.15 am Holy Communion

Morning Prayer will be said every Wednesday in the church. Everyone is welcome and the short service is about 15 minutes long.

The Easter Day service was very well attended by villagers and visitors. Special thanks to Ann for organising the lilies again which looked lovely. The church is open every day if people want to see the beautiful arrangements and there is a list of donors and their loved ones in the church porch. Thanks also to Bernadette and Mark who made a very effective simple wooden cross from the trunk of the Christmas tree. Recycling at its best. Thank you also to Ed and Killoran and Georgina, Thomas, Eliza and Matilda who devised and produced an Easter sketch during the service which was much appreciated by the congregation.

Christian Aid week this year is from 14th to 20th May. This year the money raised will be to help refugees from the war torn areas of the world. Due to a lack of man-power we will not be distributing envelopes in the village but if you would like to donate a cheque (payable to Christian Aid) or to give cash we would appreciate it. Donations to me, Annie or Bernadette.
